

Guidelines for Content Submission to Gilwell Gazette

The Gilwell Gazette is our troop's newsletter. We welcome articles and other material from the members of NE-I-261. All articles and other information to be submitted for the next issue of the NE-I-261 Gilwell Gazette must be submitted to the Troop 1 Scribes.

Rules

1. The content of the article must be appropriate to the Scouting movement.
2. There will be no "Critter bashing", negative comments, jokes, or derogatory remarks made about other members or patrols. All content will be positive and upbeat.
3. Humorous articles and images must conform to the principles of Scouting.
4. Copyright and trademark rights will be respected in all content submitted.
5. Challenges and competitions may be entered, conforming to the above rules.
6. The article cannot contain any advertisements or commercial endorsements.
7. Listing of contact information may be entered ONLY if the contact person gives permission, in writing, to the Troop Scribes.
8. The article must be submitted neatly on paper, or electronically.

Submission dates and times will be listed in the Gilwell Gazette. Late entries will be used in the following issue of the newsletter.
